

MeL Training & Woodlands Library Cooperative

Present the MeL Database

Books, Lives and Videotape: A Reader's Advisory Presentation

Duncan Smith

Creator of NoveList

November 19, 2009

1:00 - 3:00 pm

Albion District Library

501 S. Superior St, Albion, MI 49224

This program is the perfect way for you to make the best use of NoveList in working with your library's fiction readers. Using videotapes of readers talking about books they have read and enjoyed, Duncan provides a reader-centered approach to meeting the needs of your fiction readers.

The following common scenarios will be addressed:

- Helping readers who are reading books you haven't read.
- Finding books in a series in reading order.
- Locating books for readers when they can't remember the author (or the title.)
- Finding reading suggestions for readers who like a particular genre or plot.

This presentation is provided FREE through MeL Training and Woodlands Library Cooperative.

Please send registrations to: Woodlands Library Cooperative, 415 S. Superior, Ste. A, Albion, MI 49224. Call the Woodlands office at 1-800-962-4472.

The Woodlands Library Cooperative will provide necessary reasonable auxiliary aids and services, such as signers for the hearing impaired and audio tapes of printed materials being considered at the meeting, to individuals with disabilities at the meeting/hearing upon one week's notice to the Woodlands Library Cooperative. Individuals with disabilities requiring auxiliary aids or services should contact the Woodlands Library Cooperative by writing or calling the following: Woodlands Library Cooperative, 415 S. Superior, Suite A., Albion, MI 49224-2135 (800) 962-4472, Fax (517) 629-3812.

(Cut along line and return the bottom of the form to the Woodlands office)

NoveList

November 19, 2009

Name _____ Library _____

Email: _____ Work phone _____